Today was ^{the} Mid - Autumn Festival. So, we went to the Hong Kong Disneyland. Before all else, we went to a restaurant. We had a great breakfast there. We ordered some dim sum and food. Mum liked the red bean soup, but I thought the chicken wings with honey ~~is~~ ^{was} the most delicious. We were very full.

Next, we went to Nam Cheong Station and took a train to ^{the} Hong Kong Disneyland. We arrived at the destination ^{quickly}. Dad bought five tickets. I was so joyful. We played on a carousel. Grandmother and Grandfather took a lot of photos for me!

Then, we went to a 3D movie theatre. I like watching 3D movies. The 3D movies was about Micky Mouse. He practised the piano, but Donald Duck played tricks on him.

After that, we rode on a roller coaster. It was too high for me. I was excited. I thought the carousel was more interesting than the roller coaster.

Eventually, we left the Hong Kong Disneyland. We went to the bus stop and took a bus home. What a wonderful day!
