

Jimmy's Day

Jimmy saved money in the past few months. He had five hundred dollars. He felt excited. (He wanted to buy a pair of new trainers.) He ran to the trainer shop quickly at once.

On his way, he knocked down a man in the street. The leaflets were dropped onto the floor. He felt so sorry and helped the man pick up the leaflets.

At that moment, he picked up and read the leaflet. The leaflet was <sup>about</sup> learning Tae Kwon Do. He wanted to spend the money on the Tae Kwon Do course.

At last, he spent the money on learning Tae Kwon Do. He felt thrilled because he could become stronger.
